AGING AND DISABILITY RESOURCE CENTER OF CENTRAL WISCONSIN UPDATE:
Jennifer Cummings gave the update:

- With all of the dangerous/hazardous weather lately, nutrition services throughout the region where canceled for several days in a row. There was concerned for the customers, phone calls were made to all meals on wheels participants throughout the four counties, to assure they were OK and had food during this period.
- They haven't received confirmation on the Senior Farmers Market Voucher distribution program details, but have set dates and secured locations across the region. The Marshfield date is Thursday, June 6 at Wildwood Station starting at 8:00 a.m. and in Wisconsin Rapids on Friday, June 7th.
- Interviewed and hired a new nutrition site manager in Merrill and made an offer to an individual to become the Benefit Specialist supervisor...so at this point, all vacant positions are filled.
- They will be looking for two new advisory committee members--one for Lincoln County, one for Marathon County and then we will also be looking for another Wood County committee member.
- Eleven individuals attended the Alzheimer's Advocacy Day in Madison in February. They obtained training/talking points and then met with legislators who represented our four county regions. Disability Advocacy Day is scheduled for March 20th and Aging Advocacy Day is scheduled for May 14th. Currently collecting names of staff, board/advisory/and consumers who may be interested in attending.
- Two staff from the ADRC-CW will be attending the National Alzheimer Advocacy Event at the end of March as a registration scholarship was given from southeast chapter of the Alzheimer’s Association.
- ADRC-CW currently has an information display at the Marshfield Library if you’re in the area check it out!

WOOD COUNTY TRANSPORTATION: They are moving toward new programming for the office staff. There has been a part-time rural driver hired for Marshfield.

TAXI UPDATE: The council has been introduced to the corporate buy program.

SENIOR UPDATE: They will be holding a Cabin Fever Cookout on March 16th.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS: None

NEW BUSINESS: None

2018 SENIOR HEALTH FAIR: Discussion was held about a topic for the Health Fair speaker.

CITIZEN’S COMMENTS: None

FUTURE MEETING DATE: Thursday, April 4, 2019

COA2018-18 Motion by Cummings to adjourn at 10:30 a.m.
