FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

To: News Editors
Date: August 13, 2019

Tuesday, August 13, 2019 - Mayor Bob McManus is seeking residents of the City of Marshfield interested in serving as a commissioner on the Utility Commission to submit to the Office of the Mayor a letter stating his/her qualifications and reasons for wanting to serve on the board.

The Municipal Code of the City of Marshfield provides that the 5 member Utility Commission is elected by the Common Council. Commissioners serve staggered 5-year terms. This letter must be received by Tuesday, September 3, 2019 at 4:30 p.m. The names of the interested persons will be presented to the Common Council at its September 10, 2019 meeting. The Common Council will elect 1 person to the five-member board at its September 24, 2019 meeting.
