Mission Statement

"To provide quality recreation opportunities for the citizens of Marshfield that are both accessible and affordable and to plan, promote, acquire, develop, and maintain parks and recreation facilities that will enhance the City of Marshfield and meet the recreational needs of the community."

The City of Marshfield Parks and Recreation Department believes that all individuals should be provided with leisure opportunities that allow for performance at their highest level of ability. We welcome people with disabilities into our recreation programs through specialized programs and inclusion opportunities. We will comply with the services and activities for individuals with disabilities. Please contact Kelly Cassidy at 715-486-2043 for more information or questions about accommodations and inclusion.

Tai Chi

Tai Chi is an ancient Chinese exercise that combines relaxed, fluid movement with a calm, alert mental state. It is a non-impact exercise that builds endurance and enhances flexibility, balance and coordination. Tai Chi can be practiced by most people of all ages and most physical conditions. Regular practice helps develop healthy breathing patterns and relaxation skills, while also strengthening the body with minimal stress to the joints, and improving coordination and strength. Classes are offered 2 times per week for an hour.

Winter Storage

Looking for a place to store your boat, camper or vehicle for the winter? Try winter storage at the Marshfield Fairgrounds Park. This service is provided by the Marshfield Parks & Recreation Department. All boats and campers are charged by length, with all cars being charged at one flat rate. Storage takes place at the end of October, with removal taking place in early April.

To view our current rate schedule, visit the City of Marshfield's website at ci.marshfield.wi.us, then click on Departments, Parks & Recreation, Winter Storage.

To be placed on our interest list, please email parkrec@ci.marshfield.wi.us.

Be sure to include the type of item you'd like to store and the length, along with your name, address & phone number. Letters and leases will be mailed in late September to those on our interest list. Due to door heights of our buildings, we cannot accommodate items over 11 feet tall.

Let Us See You Smile!

Our staff may take pictures of participants enjoying our parks and programs. These pictures are only for Parks & Recreation Department use for future program brochures and flyers.

Insurance & Liability

Participation in any recreational activity carries with it a certain degree of risk. We urge all participants to have adequate insurance coverage and doctor examinations before signing up for any program. Our Department does not provide insurance for people enrolled in activities.

Birth Dates

Birth dates are necessary for appropriate program placement and for our software to function properly.

We Need You!

Do you have a special talent or hobby you would like to share with others? The Marshfield Parks & Recreation Department has many part-time job opportunities available.

Many of our positions have flexible hours, and can be planned around your schedule. If you're a stay-at-home parent, a new retiree, or anyone in-between, the Marshfield Parks & Recreation Department may have the opportunity you're looking for!

Who is a City of Marshfield Resident?

A Marshfield resident is defined as someone whose home lies within the City of Marshfield city limits. If you are a homeowner, you can confirm you are a Marshfield resident if you pay your property taxes at Marshfield City Hall Plaza. If you are renting a home or apartment and want to confirm residency, just call or stop in and give us your street address. We can check the city register to confirm that you are a city resident.

MARSHFIELD PUBLIC LIBRARY

FALL 2016

MARSHFIELD
LIBRARY

Marshfield Public Library

211 E. 2nd St., Marshfield
715-387-8494

Hours: Labor Day - Memorial Day
Mon. - Fri. 9:00 am - 9:00 pm
Saturday 9:00 am - 5:00 pm
Sunday 1:00 pm - 5:00 pm

Home to over 160,000 items, the Marshfield Public Library really does have something for everyone! Books, DVD's, videos, CD-ROMS, audio recordings, magazines, newspapers, and equipment for people with special needs make up the bulk of the items available for checkout and use at home. We also provide specialized collections including large print, genealogy, Spanish language materials, and exhibits.

For the library's over 26,000 registered borrowers from Marshfield, the Town of McMillian, and surrounding areas, the library also has workstations with Internet access, word processing, spreadsheets, databases, and presentation software, in addition to periodical databases, meeting room space, quiet study areas, and typewriters.

Friendly, knowledgeable staff provides reference and informational service in person, over the phone (715-384-8494), by FAX (715-387-6909), and via email (refdesk@marshfieldlibrary.org). Participation in the South Central Library System brings material from around the state to Marshfield through interlibrary loan and delivery services as well as virtual reference services all day, any day, through "AskAway." Visit the Marshfield Public Library and the catalog in person or through our web page.

Mission Statement

"Marshfield Public Library provides citizens in the Marshfield area with a comprehensive collection of books and other media that record human knowledge, ideas, and culture. The library's main objectives are to organize materials in an easily accessible manner, to provide qualified staff to offer guidance and encouragement in use of materials, and to make the library a reliable source of information and reference."

Story Time

The Marshfield Public Library is offering FREE story time sessions. The program is open to children ages 2 & older. Registration forms available in the children's section of the library two weeks before story time begins.

Fall Session I
September 26 - October 17

Fall Session II
October 31 - December 16

Story Time for Toddlers

This is a lap-sit program that offers quality one-on-one sharing for a 2-year-old and an adult. It features gentle stories, quiet songs, and fingerplays.

Fridays
10:00 - 10:30 a.m.

Story Time for all Ages

This program invites families as well as individual children of all ages to participate in songs, stories, crafts, and fingerplays.

Mondays & Tuesdays
10:00 - 10:30 a.m.
Thursdays
6:15 - 6:45 p.m.

Book Buddies

Book Buddies is a program for residents, predominantly the elderly and handicapped, who can not get to the library to select and retrieve material for themselves. The program matches the homebound person with a volunteer who delivers and returns library materials. People interested in receiving or providing this service may contact Mary Adler at the library.

Local History & Genealogy

As the 2008 recipient of the Governor's Archival award, the Marshfield Public Library gathers materials on Wood County and the surrounding counties of Marathon & Clark. Research your history using Census records, City Assessment Rolls, Community Histories, Directories, Indexes, Newspapers and Passenger Lists on Microfilm, Plat Books, and Year Books.

Tuesday Night at the Library

Every Tuesday night the library offers programs for families. Each Tuesday is something different; storytelling, movies, crafts, LEGOs, or play dough. Stop by the library to pick up a calendar of events for the month.
