

2019 - MARSHFIELD FALL SOCCER

The Parks & Recreation Department and Marshfield Youth Soccer Association (MYSA) will hold a youth soccer league, open to boys & girls entering grades K-6 in the fall. The purpose of the league is to teach fundamentals of soccer, sportsmanship and safety. Soccer is a fun game & all children get to participate, regardless of skills or experience!

PRACTICES: Set up by coaches and held for one hour each week (grades 2-6 only). Players will be notified regarding their first practice. Grades K-1 will practice for 20-minutes before each game.

GAMES: Sunday afternoons at Griese Park from Aug. 25th – Oct. 13th (no games Sept. 1st). Schedule will be posted on the Parks & Recreation website when ready (August 14th).

CLOTHING: Shin guards and soccer socks are required for all participants. Comfortable pants or shorts should be worn, along with rubber-soled athletic shoes or soccer cleats. Each player will get a team shirt to keep. Ball sizes used: Size 3--grades K-1; Size 4--grades 2-6.

TEAMS: Assigned by August 9th to allow a practice prior to the first game (grades 2-6). If you have not received a postcard or a call from your coach by Wednesday, August 14th, please email the Parks & Recreation office at parkrec@ci.marshfield.wi.us.

COACHES: We need volunteer coaches for each team. No prior experience needed! Please help us continue to make this program successful & rewarding for the children!

Please fill out the registration form below and return it to the Marshfield Parks & Recreation office with the $25.00 registration fee by July 8th. Registration Fee after July 8th is $35.00.
